

Liber Z John Medley, of St. maries hundred, planter. Capt: Thomas Cornwaleys exhibited his proxie for him.

Henry Bishopp }
 John Bryant } of Mattapanient, planters
 Richard Lusthead } Richard Garnett Senior exhibited his proxie for them severally.

Nathaniel Pope of St. maries hundred }
 Henry weed, of St. marie's hundred }
 John Medcalfe of St. Marie's hundred } planters
 John Courtis of St. George's hundred }
 John Davis of St. marie's hundred }
 John Richardson of St. George's hundred }
 Thomas Hebden of St. George's hundred } but they made not appearance nor proxies.

Then was proclaymed, that all freemen omitted in the writts of summons, that would clayme a voyce in this gräll assembly, should come & make their clayme.

Wherevpon clayme was made by John Robinson, carpent<sup>r</sup> & was admitted.

Then were certaine orders established by generall consent, to be observed during the Assembly. viz

Orders. Imp<sup>r</sup>mis, the Lieuten<sup>t</sup> gräll (as President of the Assembly, shall appoint and direct all things that concerne forme and decency to be observed in the same; and shall command the observance thereof as he shall see cause vpon paine of imprisonm<sup>t</sup> or fine as the house shall adiudge.

p. 17 Item every one that is to speake to any matter, shall stand vp, and be vncovered and direct his speech to the Lieuten<sup>t</sup> gräll as President of the Assembly. And if two or more stand vp to speake together, the Lieuten<sup>t</sup> gräll shall appoint wh<sup>e</sup> shall speake

Item no man shall stand vp to speake to any matter vntill the partie that spake last before, have sate downe, nor shall any one speake above once to one bill or matter at one reading nor shall refute the speech of any other with any vncivill or contentious termes, nor shall name him but by some circumloquution. And if any one offend to the contrary, the Licuten<sup>t</sup> gräll shall command him to silence

Item the house shall sitt every day at eight of the clock in the morning, and at two of the clock in the afternoone.

Item the freemen assembled at any time to any number above ten persons, at the houres aforesaid, or within one houre after, shalbe a house to all purposes.