

for every Pass that shall be deem'd of him by persons departing the Province 2^s 6^d for every Sloop that shall come from Virg^a and shall not bring a Certificate that they belong to some Ship there that hath given Bond according to the Act for Navigacōn and increase of shipping the same fees as for a Ship, but in case they doe produce such Certificate to goe free without paying fees

Then was read againe that Act Entituled an Addition to p. 180 and Amendm^t of that Act for Secretarys fees, which is as fol-loweth.

An Addition to and Amendm^t of that Act for Secretarys fees

The Burgesses of this present Assembly taking into there Consideracōns the Act made anno 1662 touching Secretarys fees, and not being sensible of any detrym^t accruing either to the Masters of ships Planters or others thereby doe thinke itt Convenient and necessary that that Act remayne with the addition of this Clause (vizt) That any Master or Purser of any Ship or Vessell that shall Conceale any person or persons imported into this Province whereby the Secretary may be defrauded of his fees shall forfeite five shillings in money to the Secretary for every person soe Concealed vpon prooffe made: Be itt therefore Enacted by the Lord Prop^r by and with the Consent of the Vpper and lower howse of this present Assembly. That the Act for Secretarys fees with the addition afores^d doe stand and be in full force excepting that Clause in the fore-said Act which sayth (And the s^d Summe to be repay^d to the Masters or Commanders by the freights^{rs} or Owne^{rs} of such servants) be Repealed, and be itt repealed by the authority aforesaid, That Act with this addicōn & Amendm^t to endure for three yeares or to the End of the next Generall Assembly

After readeing of which Resolued that itt be putt to the Vote whether itt pass yea or not

M^r Bateman his opinion that without amendm^t Itt ought not to pass.

M^r Baker Brooke not to pass.

M^r Lloyd not to pass as itt lyes.

M^r Coursey to pass with amendm^{ts}

M^r Whites to pass.

Vpon the mocōn from the Lower howse to haue the act for Quieting possōns againe reassumed. Ordered th^t itt be sent to the lower howse for their Consideracōn

The Chancellors opinion that itt ought not to pass without p. 181 Amendm^{ts}