vpon occasion of some warrants granted out against some freemen that had made proxies; a question was moved in the house whether freemen having made proxies during the assembly might be arrested before the Assembly were dissolved. And Captaine Cornwaleys and James Baldrige were of opinion that they might: but the rest of the house generally concurred that after the writts issued for summoning the Assembly, no man having right to repaire vnto the Assembly, might be arrested, vntill a convenient space of time after the dissolution of the said Assembly, for his repaire home.

Came into the house Edmond Parrie of the Ile of Kent planter, and desired to revoke his proxie given to m^r Philpott; and was admitted to a place and voice personally.

John ffleete of St^t Georges hundred planter claymed voice & place as a freeman: & was admitted. and made his proxie Cap^t Henry ffleete.

Then was proposed whether the Lawes formerly read should be read againe in the house; or putt to the vote without further reading.

Capt: Cornwaleys gave his opinion that they should expect a more frequent house

Capt: ffleete gave his opinion, that they should be read againe.
