[illegible] of this Court was [illegible] the said [illegible] in the sum of nine [illegible] pounds of Porke being for three gallons and three quarts of Rum by the said [illegible] said [illegible] and delivered, and the said [illegible] the said [illegible] in manner aforesd [illegible] did assume upon himself [illegible] the said [illegible] faithfully promise the said sum of 97 pounds of Porke when he should be thereunto requested would well & truly content & pay [illegible] the said John his promise & assumption aforesd not regarding but minding & fraudulently intending the said [illegible] in this behalf to deceive & defraud the same to the said [illegible] not paid but hath hitherto refused & doth still refuse to the damage of the said [illegible] of 600 pounds of [illegible] & thereof brings this suite

Dent pro pria persona. Reg. [illegible] Jn. [illegible]
Rec. [illegible]

The Sd Jn. Colhoon Dft appearing did in Open Court Confess judgmt for the abovesd sum of 97½ pounds of Porke as declared & this Court grants Ordr for ye same als [illegible]

To the worll ye Comrs of Somerset County The humble Petion of Margarett Summers Sheweth That whereas ye Petioner hath by summons tended upon a cause depending betwixt John Taylor & Wm Coulbourne nine dayes besides going & coming it is the request of your humble Petioner to grant ye worp Order for her pay in such cases provided & as in duty bound shall pray. Margaret Summers

The said Deponent to the truth of all above specified sworn before us. Samuel Hopkins
Order wanted [illegible] Jn. King

The Courts adjourned till tomorrow at 8 a Clock

At a Court held for ye County of Somerset in the Province of Maryland this 11th day of November by their Maties Justices of the Peace Anno Domini 1692

Comrs Present in Court were Mr Francis [illegible] Mr [illegible] Daskiels Mr Samt Hopkins Thomas Jones & Capt John King

This day the County Leaby Leaby was laid which did amount 86 pound tobacco per poll [illegible] 140 ambo fecit 176 per poll