

the parts about Pautuxent river, that should be mett either upon the land or water on this side the neck betweene the back river of Pautuxent and the maine river towards nicolas herveyes with certaine exceptions therin mentioned, now I doe hereby vpon some reason & Accidents since hapning vtterly repeal & reverse the said proclamāon, and straitly prohibite vpon paine of death that that no English within the County of S<sup>t</sup> maries or any other p<sup>t</sup> of the Prov: doe kill or shoot any Indian whatsoever (other then such as he shall know to be sesquihanowes or wicomeses) vnles first assaulted or putt in bodily feare of his life by the Indian And whereas by one other p<sup>l</sup>amāon dated the 13th Sept: last the Nantacoque Indians were declared to be enemies of the Province, I revoke likewise hereby the said declaration, and doe publish & declare that there is a treaty of peace betwixt me and them, and a truce of 6. weeks agreed vpon for the finishing of the treaty, and herevpon have taken them into his Lo<sup>ps</sup> peace for the time aforesaid. But for the better securing of all the English inhabitants of this Province from all harme that may happen vnto them throughe the treachery & falsehood of any Indians I doe straitly forbid all the said English to enterteine or harbour in their houses any Indians whatsoever without speciall licence or appointm<sup>t</sup> from me, & vpon any Indians refusall to depart vpon necessary demand given, to expell them by violence, but not to the killing them vnles they shall assault the life of the English. Given at S<sup>t</sup> maries this 26. of January 1642. Liber P. R.

March 1. whereas I am informed that some inhabitants of this colony are intended to goe over to the Easterne shore, in trading vpon presumption of a truce &c. to phibite all going over to any river of the Easterne shore without licence p. 82

By the Leiu<sup>t</sup> Gräll

p. 88

Eod: Whereas the Lord Proprietary is given to vnderstand that diuers Adventurors into this Prov. have a long time forborne to take grants from his Lo<sup>p</sup> of lands due to them by conditions of plantation, or speciall warrant contrary to the true intent & meaning of the said conditions, & warrants w<sup>ch</sup> course must needs in processe of time make such adventurors rights & pretences to land very doubtfull; and his Lo<sup>p</sup> thereby also receives great preiudice in his rents; It is his Lo<sup>ps</sup> pleasure that all persons pretending any right vnto any lands within this Province by vertue of any former Conditions of plantation, or speciall warrant, shall within twelve monethes from & after the date hereof, come & make appeare vnto me their right so pre-