

House of Lords Journal. Lawe, but if att all before the Constable and Marshall: And for that it would bee of daungerous example to pmitt Papists and Malignants, to bringe Actions of Trespasse, or otherwise against the well affected for fighting and standing for the Parlyament

The Peticōner most humbly beseecheth yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> to bee pleased to direct that this busines may bee heard before yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> att the Barr or to referr it to a Committee to reporte the true state of the Case and to order that the said suites against the Peticōner att the Comōn Lawe may bee stayed and noe further proceeded in.

Richard Ingle.

Die Martis, 24<sup>o</sup> Februarie 1645.

Vpon the peticon of Richard Ingle read this day in the house It is ordered by the Lords in Parliament assembled, That the matters in difference Betweene the Petic<sup>r</sup> & Thomas Cornwallis & others comprised in the said Peticon shall be heard at this Barr on this day senight being the third of March next by ten of the clocke in the morning Whereof the pties concerned are to haue spedy notice who are by their Councell to attend accordingly And that all the pcedings against the petic<sup>r</sup> by the said pties touching the matters complained of are to be be stayed vntill the said hearing

Jo: Brown Cler.
Parlyamentorum.

2<sup>o</sup> Martij 1645

Mary fford — }
Cornewallis — } Cap' Ingle his papers
Ingle. — }

Thomas Cornwallis p<sup>ti</sup>
agst

Richard Ingle def<sup>te</sup>

Cornwallis planted himselfe diuers yeares since in the Pvince of MaryLand in America And about two yeares since Ingle came thither as M<sup>r</sup> of a London Shipp to trade in those parts wth the English who had planted there and was there accused of high Treason for wordes w<sup>ch</sup> he had spoken agst the King vpon some Comunicācon of the differances here betweene the King and Parliam<sup>t</sup> vpon w<sup>ch</sup> accusācon Ingle was arrested and his Shipp and goods seised by the then Gouverno<sup>r</sup> but Cornwallis to declare his affecōn to the Parliament found meanes wthin 8 howers space to free Ingle and to restore him to his