Lo Baltimore

To the right Hono<sup>ble</sup> the Lords in Parliam<sup>t</sup> assembled
The humble peticon of Cicill Lord Baltemore.
Sheweth,

That whereas there is an ordinance dependinge in this howse for repealinge of his Pattent of Maryland, vpon w<sup>ch</sup> place hee hath ingaged the greatest parte of his fortune. That as hee hath heard and supposes, it is for some accons p<sup>r</sup>tended to bee done by others vnder him there, but hee doth not yet knowe the pticulars of the chardge intended to bee layd against him, nor whoe are his accusers. That betweene March and June next there is expected as is yearely vsuall a returne of Shippes from those parts, by some of w<sup>ch</sup> Shippes hee expects some persons to returne, whose testimonies may bee necessary for his Iustificacōn.

Wherefore hee humbly prayes that this hono<sup>ble</sup> howse wilbee pleased to order, that hee may haue the pticulars of his chardge deliv<sup>r</sup>ed to him in writinge, and that hee may haue a convenient tyme afterwards giuen him to prepare for his defence in a busines w<sup>ch</sup> soe neerely concernes his inheritance, and that the ordinance may in the meane tyme bee suspended till hee bee heard.

And yo<sup>r</sup> pet<sup>r</sup> shall pray &<sup>c</sup>

C. Baltemore.
