

advantage of them to whom they shall appeare hereafter of right to belong, and to keepe due accompt of what hath bene or shalbe disposed of, Liber H. H.

London 29th September 1659.

Your very Loueing freind
C Baltemore.

To Cap<sup>n</sup> Josias Fendall my Lieutenant of Maryland, and to the rest of my Councell there.

Maryland.

J sent a Sample of the Maryland money with directions for the procureing it to pass because J vnderstood by letters this yeare from the Governor and yow and others that there was no doubt but the people there would accept of it, w<sup>ch</sup> if wee find they do, there wilbe meanes found to supply yow all there with money enough: but though it would be a very great advantage to the Colony, that it should pass Currant there, and an vtter discouradgment for the future supply of any more, if there be not a Certaine establishment this yeare and assurance of its being vented and Currant there. yet it must not be imposed vpon the people but by a lawe there made by their Consents in a Gennerall Assembly, w<sup>ch</sup> J pray faile not to signifie to the Governor and Councill there together from me by shewing them this letter from
