

Liber Z. Thomas Cornwallis Esq, is discharged hereby from all account L. O. R. to the Lord Proprietor for one hundred Barrells of Corne No. 2. which he is admitted to trade for with the Indians for the Expençe of the Colony.

John Lewger

p. 2

[1637]

December

30^{yds} Cloth 25^c p y^d

tenth is — 25^c

2 dozen axes at

c p dozen tenth is

2^c

ll — : — 237^l

turned

———— y^{ds} Cloth

otter Skinns

axes

y^{ds} roanoke

Shipped vpon the Saint Thomas by Thomas Cornwallis Esq in the n[ame] and behalfe of Jerome Hawly of this Province Esq, three peices of blew [truck] cloth, containing 30 y^{ds} a peice; and two dozen of trucking axes. A[nd the] said Thomas Cornwallis doth acknowledge himselfe to stand indebted to [the] Lord Proprieto^r in two hundred thirtie and seven pounds weight of good m[erchan-] table tobacco, due for the tenth of the said cloth and axes; to be paid to John Lewger his Lo^{ps} Collector upon the tenth of November next; provided that in case the said cloth and axes or any part thereof, or the value of them in peake or roanoke raised from the Indians by the said cloth or axes, shall be returned againe without being vented, that then so much of the said two hundred thirtie and seven pound w^t of tobacco is to [be] discompted to the said Thomas Cornwallis as the commoditie so return[ed] without vent, did amount vnto in the computation of the said tenths.

And further the said Thomas Cornwallis doth covenant and oblige himselfe [to] satisfie and deliver to his L^{opps} said Collecto^r the full tenth part in [kind] of all such fures, or other commodities whatsoever w^{ch} shalbe bought, trad[ed] for or exchanged of or from any Indians whatsoever by or with the said [Cloth] and axes, or any part thereof, within ten daies after the returne of [the] foresaid vessell into this port; except such corne or other commodities for w^{ch} the said Thomas Cornwallis shall have a discharge from the said Collecto^r

Witnesse the Lieuten^t generall

Thos. Cornwaleys.

Leonard Caluert.

30th march 1637

This day came The said Thomas Cornwaleys, and entred fiftie five yards of cloth, and and nineteene axes, and one and fourty yards of roanoake, returned againe (of the former truck mentioned in the recognisance) without venting; and the residue of the said truck employed in fourty barrells of corne