

Liber F. boats goods to trade, and Surprized them, and doe Still detain the same, By the of which Pinnaces and goods the Inhabitants within the said Isle were reduced So great famine and misery as they became utterly destitute of any corn Sustain themselves, which enforced them to send a small boat ow th why they obeyed not your Majesty's said Royal Letters and Command to the said Pinnaces and goods to enable them to trade for corne feed boat approaching near unto Some Vessell of the said Lord Baltimore Agents, they shott among the Petiçoners men and slew three of them and hu more, And not content with these great Injuries, the said Lord Baltimore and his Agents, have openly defamed and unjustly accused the Peticon's of crimes to his exceeding great grief, which hath caused him purposely pair into this Kingdom and humbly prostrate himself and his Cause vn Majesty's feet to be relieved herein

And the Petiçoner having likewise discovered lantāo and ffactorie upon a small Island in the Mouth of a River in the bottom of the said Bay in the Sasquesahanoughs Country at the Inidians Desire and purchased the same of them by means whereof, by means whereof are in great hopes to draw thither the trade of Beavers and ffurrs which the ffrench now wholly enjoy in the Grand Lake of Canada which may prove very beneficiall to Your Majesty and the Commonwealth But by Letters now from thence your Petiçoner is advised that the Lord Baltimore's Agents are gone with 40 men to Supplant the Petiçoners said Plantaçons and to take possession thereof and seat themselves thereon

And the Petiçoner being desirous to propose a way Whereby, your Majesty may receive to the Crown for Plantaçons an Annual benefit and the Planters be certain to enjoy the Same with the fruits of their Labour, They doe Offer unto your Majesty 100^{lb} p anñu viz^t 50^l for the said Isle of Kent, and fifty pound for the said Plantation in the Sasquesahanoughs Country, to have there 12 leagues of Land &c, from the Mouth of the said River on each side thereof, down the said Bay South-erly to the seaward, and Soe to the head of the said River, and to the Grand Lake of Canada to be held in ffee from the Crown of England and to be yearly paid into your Majesty's Exchequer, to be governed according to the Laws of England, with such priviledges as your Majesty shall please to grant, By w^{ch} means your Majesty may raise a great revenue annually and all Planters will be encouraged to proceed chearfully on their designs.

And the Petiçoners having now a Ship ready to depart with goods and people for the prosecuteing and manageing of their