Came M<sup>r</sup> Robert Carvile and M<sup>r</sup> Joseph Wicks from the Lower house and Deliver the following Message Viz<sup>t</sup>—

Lower house November the 8th 1682

This house desire the Upper house would be pleased to send to this house the Articles of Peace with the Northern Indians made first at Albany by Coll Coursey and all other Matters Lying before them, relating to Jacob Young, in Order to the Proceeding upon and proving the Impeachment laid against, him and more Particularly the Information or Evidence of Coll: Coursey against him—

Signed p. Order Tho<sup>s</sup> Grunwin Cl of the Lower house

The Articles of Peace made with the Northern Indians p. Coll: Coursey and other the Papers relating thereunto and Concerning Jacob Young in this house are accordingly Delivered to M<sup>r</sup> Carvile, who also produced Articles of Impeachment drawn up by the Committee against Jacob Young which (he said he had in Charge from their house to report to this house) they Conceived might be some what Lame and Defective for want of more Clear Evidence the matter Contained in the Two Affidavits annexed being only Testimony and post facto and not of Validity enough to prove the fact upon which he became Committed; he further Added that the Lower house had taken it very ill that Coll: Coursey the most Material Evidence in so Considerable a Cause wherein the whole Country was Concerned should Notwithstanding their request be Dismissed without giving in his Evidence—

Whereunto replied by this house that what had been
