

The Act for Advancement of Trade sent to the Vpper house by Cap<sup>t</sup> Osborne and M<sup>r</sup> Hatton—They returne and say the Vpper house is Adjourned—

L. H. Journal
Original.

The house Adjourned till to morrow morning
9 a clock—

ffryday 10th November 1682

The house sate againe present as before—

Then was read what was done sterday—

The Comittee of Accompts goe

The last bill from the V house lycencing Jnhabitants and prohibiting rreigners to trade with Jndians Read the fir time And therevpon M<sup>r</sup> Carvile sent to the Vpp ouse to Acquaint that house That if they please to the bill Engrossed and ascertained what law they eane touching pagans And that if it be the same law which this house Vnderstands ought to be repealed This house will passe the said Act And to Enquire what time they will appoynt for the Tryall of Jacob Young—He returnes and sayes he delivered his Message. And that the Vpper house say they will Consider of the law by the Lower house intended to be repealed Entituled An

Agreeing the latter part of the said p. 33 to be ealed, but would further Consider And there was a Message coming of of Jacob Young—the Vpper house with

No: 10th 1682./

Jacob young a Cobby of vp against him by the
to know what members of the mannage that charge That all before them the said Jacob
Signed p Ord<sup>r</sup> Jn<sup>o</sup> LLewellin Clk of Assembly—

dered that this message be sent to the Vpper to the last of theirs by M<sup>r</sup> Ennalls
as follo

Lower house 10th No: 1682—

This house in pursuance of the last Message by Coll Lowe have appoynted the Attorney Generall, M<sup>r</sup> Carvile, M<sup>r</sup> Clement Hill, M<sup>r</sup> Addams, Maj<sup>r</sup> Weekes and M<sup>r</sup> Gibson to be the Per-