Lawes, Yett he Cōnceives it Changeth not the Nature or quality of any law ffrom being Temporary to be perpetuall, but only Assertaynes them to bee lawes, in such manner and forme, and to such Intents & purposes as in the bodies of the same lawes, were before Expressed.

To which his Lo^{pp} Replies, th^t the Act for Killing of wolues is wthout doubt made perpetuall, because the Act w^{ch} Assertaynes the same to be a law is perpetuall and hath Assertayned th^t Act to be a law Accordingly.

Therefore his Lōpp desires M^r Speaker and the members of the Lower house to returne to their Owne house & Consider thereof, And alsoe th^t in the sayd Act of Reviver Are Conteyned severall ssary to be revived w^{ch} his Lo^{pp} sayes he is willing to Assent to Killing of wolves be left out of the sd Bill:

Wherevpon M^r Speaker and the members returne, to their Take their places: And After severall Argum^{ts} & debates Concerning the same, It was Put to the question whether a new bill of reviver shall be drawne leaveing out the Act for killing of Wolves.

Uoted in the Negative

The question was then Put whether, the same bill be againe p^rsented to his Lōpp for his Assent:

Resolved in the Affirmative.

Then this house, goe into the Upper house, & After severall Arguments relating to the sd Bill of Reviver, his Lōpp Disassents to the sd Bill but to the Other bills, being Six in number Entituled as foll

Bills past this Sessions 1 A Bill for Naturalizeing Peter Maisee de Moy-sne & Others
