

ing no cause why which seems so much the more uneasy us for that we have lived many happy days under the Government of the Lord Baltimore and his Agents and enjoyed peaceably and freely the exercise of our religion, libertys and properties and never had just cause to pray any other Government But now earnestly pray and humbly beseeche your most sacred Majesties will be pleased with all the convenient speed as may be either to reestablish the said Lord Baltimore in his Ancient power and Government or by such other wayes and means to order the Settlem^t of this your Majesties Province as in justice shall seem to you most meet and convenient That we may again reape the benefit of the Laws of England as heretofore we have done is the humble petition and desire of those which cannot esteem any happiness more agreable than in being, Dread Sovereignes

Your Maj^{ties} most Loyall dutiful and obedient Subjects and Servants

Geo. Lingan	J ^{no} Smith
Thomas Johnson	John Smith
Richard Smith jun ^r	W ^m W Whittington
Walt ^r Smith	his marke
Enock Comes	W A Keroyd
Will Brookes	Joseph Hall
Henry Orton	Nathan. Veitch
Robert Davy	John Pawman
The mark of	J ^{no} Veitch
Robert R ^I Johnson	Elisha Hall
Hugh Chinton	Francis Buxton
Rich ^d Rake	the mark of
John Faney	J ^{no} T Maydowe
the mark of	the mark of
Francis F H Hutchins	W ^m x Wood
Jo ⁿ Leach Jun ^r	Richard Looke
Sam ^l Holdeworthy	Roger Skime
J ^{no} Holdeworth	Edward Dickinson
W ^m Dawkins	Tho. Clagett
Jos. Edwards	R ^d Clarke
Mitch. Dandy	Joseph Wright
Rich ^d Keene	Robert Shepheard
Hugh Hepenell	William Hutchings
John Nutthall	William Winning
the mark of	James Veatch
Symon G V Garling	the mark of
W ^m Chaplaine	Edward E Blackburne
Dann. Rawlings	James Ante
James Wamless	W ^m Turner