

of the Revenues raised in Maryland since the Revolution and particularly of the impost of 2<sup>s</sup> wherein it may be distinguished how much has been raised how much expended, what remains yet undisposed of and where th<sup>t</sup> same lies at present which acc<sup>t</sup> you are to bring to me for the use of the Committee before friday next in the afternoone.

P. R. O.
Col. Entry
Book,
Vol. 52.

W. B.

Articles against the Lord Baltimore his Deputies Judges and Ministers employed by him in the Government of this Province viz<sup>t</sup>
Against the Lord Baltimore.

P. R. O.
Maryland
B. 1. Vol. 2,
B. E.
P. 34

1. Appointing none but Irish Papists and his owne relacōns for the most part to have the Cheife Governing authority over the Inhabitants here.
2. Erecting and founding of Chappells for the Popish superstition to the encouragm<sup>t</sup> of Popery and subvertion of the Protestant religion the Preists clayming the Ecclesiasticall libertyes and priviledges of the church of Rome and exerciseing papall Jurisdictiōn from the encouragem<sup>t</sup> of the first Act of Assembly still in force in this Province being invested with the best and richest Lands for the maintenance and support of them and a popish Clergie.
3. Causeing to be apprehended his Majesties Protestant Subjects by armed Papists in time of Peace without warrant or cause of comittment exhibited and confined by long and tedious imprisonment before Tryall.
4. Not provideing for the support of a Protestant Clergy or the exercise of the protestant Religion, but on the contrary takeing advantage by Escheats of Lands bequeathed and devised to the use of the Protestant Ministry.
5. Discourageing Protestants and preferring Papists to 6. places of honour and profit constituting a third estate for the makeing of Laws, called his upper house of Assembly makeing them a part of the Legislative power contrary to the fundamentall constitution of the Government
7. Violating the Freedom of Elections to sitt and serve in Generall Assemblies.
8. Preventing their sitting and serving when elected by summoning only a select number of them to that End.
9. Makeing Lawes without consent of Assembly extending to the Estates and Properties of the Inhabitants
10. Assumeing a power to assent or dissassent when and to what Laws his Lordshipp shall think fitt, that are made in his absence out of the Province.
11. Assumeing a Power by proclamacōn to repeal Laws made and consented to by sufficient authority.