

Warr^t supinde 27^o Junij and a subp^a to Paul Simpson to bee Liber A. examined as a Witnes in this Cause on the pltes behaulf r imediate

John dandy plte
 Mr Rich: Husbands } Marriner def^t } M^r William Eltonhead gent maketh oath being aboard M^r Richard Husbands Shippe then riding in S^t Georges River hee heard the said M^r Husbands say hee would punish John dandy who was then aboard the said Shipp, and then called for some of his seamen and commanded them to binde the said dandy And afterwards the said dandy sending for this depon^t hee therevppon went to him in the Gunroome where hee found him the said dandy bound having his Armes fast pinioned behind him and tied to his neck with a Cord in a rigorous fashion And the said dandy then tould this depon^t the said Husbands had soe bound him And therevppon the seamen telling this depon^t the said Husbands their Maister had bound him and they durst not vnloose him hee this depon^t then vnloosed the said dandy And further deposeseth not

Jurat 25^o Junii coram me Tho: Hatton

Georg Manners plte Marks Pheypo Nichās Keetinge def^ts And Nichās Keeting plte } and Georg Manners def^t } The matter in question betwixt the said parties consisting of Accompt w^{ch} being imperfect and not fitt for the determinacōn of the Court at p^rsent. It is by consent of all parties ordered That all matters in difference betwixt them bee referred to the hearing exam-inacōn & determinacōn of M^r Cuthbert ffenwick M^r Willm Eltonhead and M^r Richard Willan who are hereby authourised to call the said parties and their witnesses before them at any time before the next Court as they shall thinke fitt, and to examine them or any of them vppon oath for the better stating of the Accompts and settling of all differences, And by all good meanes to determine all the said differences if they can or else to certify their proceedings together with their opinions therein And the Court will therevppon make such further order therein as shalbe fitt And the said parties and every of them doe hereby obleige themselues severally in the sōme of Tenne thousand pounds of Tob: & Caske to stand to such end & determinacōn therein as the said Referrees shall happen to make, to bee paid by the discenting party or parties to the other party or parties that shall not discent from the said determinacōn And the said Nichās Keeting doth hereby obleige himself on the behaulf of the said Marks Pheypo for whom hee is Attorney that hee shall comply in all things with this p^rsent Order

Nicholas Keeting
 The marke of Georg Manners