Willm Hardwich pte }
Walter Beane def^t } The pte sues to bee releived against the def^t for great Costs and charges by him sustayned in a suite formerly depending betweene him the said nowe Complte pte and Cap^t John Price defend^t by reason of an imperfect Verdict brought in by the nowe defend^t then foreman of the Jury in that Cause as hee alleadgeth. To this the defend^t alleadgeth that the Verdict was pfect and that the Jurors all agreed thereto.

Barnaby Jackson one of the Jurors in open Court maketh oath that after the Verdict nowe in question was brought in by the Jury (the same day as this depon^t taketh it) Willm Stiles one of the then Jury in this Cause expressed in this depon^{ts} hearing that after hee heard the greater part of the Jury give theire assent to the verdict then to bee by them brought in, hee gave his consent thereto also : or to that effect

Vppon the debating of this Cause, Willm Hardwich the pte vsed some opprobious words to Tho: Greene Esq^r p'sent in Court viz: That when the Cause formerly came to hearing hee the said M^r Greene his Lo^{pps} then Governor, put him the Complte in prison to take him off from psecucōn of his Cause, or to that effect. wherevppon the Court fined him 300^l of Tob. & Caske to his Lopp and imprisonm^t during the Governors pleasure. But hee expressing himself very sorry for his Offence and asking M^r Greene forgivenes in open Court The Governor discharged him of the Imprisonm^t and M^r Greene remitted the offense soe farr as lay in him, and the Governor vppon his submission remitted the ffine

The further hearing of this Cause is respited till the next Court and the pte may then pceede if hee thinke fitt
