The Deposition of Iohn Lawson Examined and Sworne this 23<sup>d</sup> of September 1657. Saith, That in or about march in the yeare 1656 Edward Turner being aboard m<sup>r</sup> Tillmans Ship with me to gett Goods m<sup>r</sup> Tillman asked me if I knew him to be an honest man, I replyed yes, for that I was Sure he would pay for the Goods he had of him, Goods I see was delivered by m<sup>r</sup> Tillman and his man, to the Value of or about Seven hundred pounds of Tobacco, with which Goods m<sup>r</sup> Tillman Sent in a long boate with two or 3 Seamen and the Said Edward Turner going along with the Said Boate and men to weigh the Said Tobacco, about one or two dayes after the long boat returned back I See the Said Goods brought back againe, with one hogshead of Tobacco received in part of the Said Goods, And I heard the Said Seamen Say that reced the hhd of Tobacco of Turner tell m<sup>r</sup> Tillman that they would not deliver any part of the Goods to Turner, and the Said Seamen told m<sup>r</sup> Tillman that he would Shortly provid Tobacco to pay m<sup>r</sup> Tillman his due, m<sup>r</sup> Tillman replyed that the Goods Should be kept for him, And farther Saith not
