

c. s. c. Francis Saunderson for sundry expressions which appeared to us of such dangerous tendency, that we conceived it to be our duty to transmit him to you for further examination. We have accordingly sent him under a guard of the militia, accompanied by M^r Evans the Evidence against him. The charge against M^r Saunderson enraged the people so much that it was with much difficulty he could be protected from the popular resentment. By order of the committee

[Garrett to Jenifer.]

Sr. I received your favor with one hundred pounds by M^r Hall. I am very unfit for the task entrusted to me being so deprived of my sight as to be unable to distinguish any writing or print, but desirous to promote the service all in my power, I have applied to some gentlemen of our county to assist me. I fear linnen cannot be got at the price you mention nor good new blanketts at the price stipulated. Good Kersey blanketts take 5 yds, & 5/ per yard is the lowest that article can be had at, however tryall will be made, and shall furnish you with the success we have. I have seen some linⁿ at Doct^r Archer's Factory, but they ask more than you allow me to give.

I am Sir Y^r humble ServantHarford October 14th 1776.
