Sir.

We would have Captain Maxwell's company march immediately to Philadelphia. The Captain will there apply to and receive further orders from Congress. It is doubtful whether Tents can be had for them at Phil^a if they can they will be furnished, but we presume, as Barracks are building at the camp, that they may be well provided for when they arrive there.

[Council to Capt. Holland.]

No. 217.

Sir. We have sent inclosed to Cap^t Aq^a Hall the commissions for your Subalterns & request that you will march for Philadelphia as soon as you are ready and then apply to Congress for further orders. You will be provided with Barracks when you arrive at camp, as we are informed that Barracks are erecting there with the greatest expedition for the reception of the Soldiery now stationed there, as well as those who are expected to reinforce the army.
