

ginia to speake with us in his p<sup>r</sup>sence, And lett that which you have proposed to us be as fast & firm as the Covenant we have with the Governour gen<sup>l</sup> Wee humbly thank you that you have sent for us to speake with us in this Governm<sup>t</sup> & doe p<sup>r</sup>sent halfe a beaver. Lib. R. R.

2<sup>dly</sup> You are come here to speak with us of good things, & we will give you a good Answer thereupon, doe give one beaver.

3<sup>dly</sup> Wee thank you that you doe bury & forgett all former discontents & injuries, as we doe the same, & never more to be remembred ; for we know very well our people have been offensive unto you, we desire and recommend unto you the continuacōn of the Covenant now made betwixt us, as that which we have with the Governo<sup>r</sup> gen<sup>l</sup> doe give one beaver.

4<sup>thly</sup> In case any of yo<sup>r</sup> Indians doe any hostility to us, we shall acquaint you therewith, before wee take upp the ax against them And we desire the like of you And the reason that we plundered the English there, was their entertaining of those Indians that were our Enemies, but we promise never to doe the like, doe give one beaver. p. 136

5<sup>thly</sup> Wee doe thank you for the p<sup>r</sup>sents given to us, & we shall punctually observe that which you have propounded to us, desireing the like upon your side. Itt is concluded in our Castle, that all the Sachims shall come here the next Summer about the month of June to make propositions, & itt is their earnest desire to see Col Coursey here, or some other authorized from his Governm<sup>t</sup> doe give a beaver.

They speak as followes

1. Wee thank you for your sending for us, & for the waggon we had from Schinnechtady hither, though the smallest belt of Wampum was sent to us, we doe thank you & our heart is good, doe give a small beaver.

2. Wee doe absolutely approve & confirme the Sinnondowannes answer, for our resolution was taken together, doe give two beavers.

3. They repeat the Answer againe & shall observe that which is propounded to them, & doe say, we thank kindly that you have buryed all former discontents or injuries as we doe the same, & give two lapps.
