

Imp<sup>rs</sup> It is thought fitt and convenient to be ordeined Lib. R. R. R.
Established and Enacted, And it is by the Mayo<sup>r</sup> Record<sup>r</sup> Aldermen & Common Councill men of the said City of S<sup>t</sup> Maryes Established ordeined and Enacted that all and every pcell of land that shall at any time hereafter be taken up within the s<sup>d</sup> City, the assureance or conveyance thereof shall be enrolled in the Records of this Court, and shall pay (as a ffee for the same) One hundred pounds of Tobacco to the Clerk of the said Court for the time being.

Item. It is also Established Enacted and ordeined, and be it by the said Mayo<sup>r</sup> Recorder Aldermen and Common Councill men hereby Established, Enacted and ordeined that the Clerk of this Court for the time being shall have and receive the same ffees for all business soe by him done or to be done accordingly as it is pay<sup>d</sup> and allowed to the hon<sup>ble</sup> Secrys of this Province for ffees of the Provinciaall Court, the same to be leavyed and recovered by way of Execution, signed by the Mayo<sup>r</sup> for the time being.

Item. It was also Enacted, Established and ordeyned that the Constable of this City for the time being shall have and be allowed the same ffee for the Execution of his Office, as is p. 264 allowed the Sheriff of any County of this Province, by act of Assembly or otherwise, the same to be recovered by way of Execution.

Notice being taken by this Court of the greate debauch-eries and disorders that are committed in this City on Sundays by severall psons, by drinking gameing, sweareing, and other like greivous Offences, to the greate dishono<sup>r</sup> & displeasure of Almighty God, the breach of the Sabboth and the obstructing of the good governm<sup>t</sup> of this City. To prevent which,

Item. It is by the Mayo<sup>r</sup> Record<sup>r</sup> Aldermen & Common Councill men, hereby enacted ordeined and appointed that noe ordinary keeper within this City shall from hence forth sell, utter, or dispose of by retayle or otherwise upon Sundayes, Any wine, brandy, Rumm, or other dramms or strong liquors to any pson or psons w<sup>t</sup>soever, Travellers strangers and sick people onely excepted, and to them spareingly and noe more then shall be thought good for their refreshment) under the penalty of, Every Ordinary keeper soe Offending to fforfeit and pay for every such default the summe of Two Thousand pounds of Tobacco, to be leavyed by the Constable of this City upon any the goods or Chattells of Every Ordinary keeper soe Offending.

Item. And it is further by the Community afores<sup>d</sup> Ordeined Established and Enacted, that from henceforth forward, there shall be noe manner of gameing at Cards, Dice, nine pinns, or any other Game whatsoever upon Sundayes, And that all