We inclose you the Names of many Inhabitants of your County who were exempted from the Public Assessments imposed preceeding the last Fall Session, a List of such as applied about the same Time as the others and were refused either absolutely or 'til more satisfactory Information and several Petitions for the like or further Relief, lodged with us since. At the Distance we are, it is very difficult if not impossible, to determine who ought to be relieved and to what Extent; your Assistance may greatly aid us and we request the Favor of you to go through the Applications already made or that may
