

- L. H. J. possess of diverse tracts of Land of Considerable value by the sale whereof the creditors may be justly Satisfied, and for that it is so tedious and chargeable a method to sue extents upon the same, it would be of great advantage to the Country, that an Act were made to Subject such persons Lands to sale for the paym<sup>t</sup> of their debts as afs<sup>d</sup> where no psonall Estate is found to answer the same. Alsoe it would induce Merch<sup>ts</sup> and other Traders to give more credit to the freeholders upon that security when their Lands are liable to answer upon Default of assetts in their Exors or admr<sup>s</sup> hands the good effect whereof is dayly experienced in Pensilvania.
