Wch being read his Excellency was pleased to comānd the Sherriff to bring in M<sup>r</sup> Philip Clark w<sup>ch</sup> he accordingly did.

Where his Excell<sup>ty</sup> was pleased to tell him that he had detain'd him in prison not out of any p<sup>r</sup>judice to him but that all the Country might see th<sup>t</sup> he was Legally condemned and Imprisoned for th<sup>t</sup> upon a former Remission upon the Like case he had spread ab: Reports th<sup>t</sup> were both false and scandalous and th<sup>t</sup> during th<sup>t</sup> time of this Imprisonment he had reported that the provinciall Court he would produce sufficient reasons in Law to Reverse the Judgm<sup>t</sup> and p<sup>r</sup>cure his Lib<sup>ty</sup> and it being now the time of the provinciall Court if he can p<sup>r</sup>duce such reasons he would have him to doe it. And then he would not need of the Kings Mercy. But if he could not p<sup>r</sup>duce such reasons after the end of the Court, upon his giving bond with Security for the peace and his good Behaviour he will extend his Maj<sup>tys</sup> Clemency so farr unto him as to Release him from his Imprisonment.

The hon<sup>ble</sup> Coll<sup>o</sup> Henry Jowles Chancellour on Behalfe of the hono<sup>ble</sup> his Maj<sup>tys</sup> Council, the hono<sup>ble</sup> the Iustices of the provinciall Court some of his Members of the house of Delegates and the Grand Iury psented the following address to his Excellency w<sup>ch</sup> he prayed might be read w<sup>ch</sup> was accordingly Done in these Words.
