

Original Journal. demeanour you should now be the first that should feel the Effects of so doing

Pray take notice that I am an English Protestant Gentleman and can never equivocate

After which they were discharged

The members of this Board taking under their Consideration that such use of the Popish Chappel of the City of St Mar<sup>ies</sup> in St Mar<sup>ies</sup> County where there is a protestant Church and the said County Court is kept is both Scandalous and offensive to the Government do advise and desire his Ex<sup>cy</sup> the Governour to give immediate orders for the Shutting up the s<sup>d</sup> Popish Chappel and that no Person presume to make use thereof under any pretence whatsoever

Whereupon it was ordered by his Ex<sup>cy</sup> the Governour that the present Sheriff of St Mar<sup>ies</sup> County lock up the s<sup>d</sup> Chappel and keep the Key thereof.

M<sup>r</sup> Young M<sup>r</sup> Leech and M<sup>r</sup> Mackal bring from the House the following message Viz

By the House of Delegates Sep<sup>r</sup> 11th 1704

Upon the Subject in the last message touching the Design forming against the Constitution of the Government resolved that all possible means be used to prevent the same as being levelled against her Majest<sup>ies</sup> Interest and the good of this Country and therefore Ordered that a Committee be appointed to consider the many Evils that would redound both to her Majest<sup>ies</sup> Interest and the Welfare of this Province and that his Ex<sup>cy</sup> be pleased to join some of the honble Council with the Committee to consider and make Report and that his Ex<sup>cy</sup> would be pleased to join his Interest with ours to prevent the same
Signed p order W Taylard Cl ho Del.

Ordered that M<sup>r</sup> Tench M<sup>r</sup> Brooke M<sup>r</sup> Smith M<sup>r</sup> Cheseldyne & M<sup>r</sup> Coursey joine the Committee of the House so soon as they are ready

The Bill for regulating ordinar<sup>ies</sup> Read and Sent down to the House by M<sup>r</sup> Smith and M<sup>r</sup> Cheseldyne with this recommendation from the Board that in the Seventeenth Line of the said Bill these words be after County (if her Majesty shall so think fitt or otherwise as she shall be graciously pleased to direct) and least the House should apprehend or have any jealousy that this Board are desirous to have the said fines for ordinary licences applyed otherwise than by the House proposed they are willing the Law be temporary for some small time two years or less if the House think fit