

L. H. J. We may see whether it be Agreeable to the Bargain already
p. 79 made but if you have done nothing therein it remains with his Excy to come to a positive Determinacon wth him what further Workmanship is yet to be performed for the finishing the said Magazine before the money be Ordered him.

Signed p Order Jn<sup>o</sup> Beard Cl: Up: Ho:

In answer to which the following Message was Prepared viz:

By the Lower House of Assembly May the 6th 1718.

May it please yo<sup>r</sup> Honours

By M<sup>r</sup> Cooke's Generall Computacon the finishing the Magazine Workmanlike as it ought to be would amount to Two hundred Pounds Currency more then he was to have by the first Bargaine, Wherefore We Considered that the Bargain was somewhat hard on his Side and desired your Concurrence in Allowing him One hundred Pounds Sterling more to make him a Recompence M<sup>r</sup> Cooke has not made any particular Proposicons to us of what Work remains to be finisht therefore We wholly referr that to his Excy to determine and to order the payment of the mony on the finishing the Work.
