

U. H. J. I am also Ordered to pass the Act for Ordinary Licenses for the same Term of Years and Likewise the Act for three Pence a Hogshhead, half of which was appropriated to the free Schools the other half to myself I do not mention this Latter Part, as in the Least Doubting the Good Will of the Countrey, for I have always found them very ready in their Favours towards me, and I should be Unjust to myself not to study the Country's Welfare, for besides the many Ties I before lay under of doing it, I have now a very near one which will induce me to pass my Days here when I shall not have the Honour to be at the head of the Administration

Gentlemen

p. 3 It is with Concern I observe the Leavies run so high, and am perswaded that if a Just Calculation was to be made of the Charge only for killing of Squirrels the Benefit the Country reaps by that Act would fall far short of the Expence. This deserves Consideration, as tending to the Ease of the Good People; and whatever else may Contribute thereto, shall not fail of my Concurrence therein.
