The following Message Viz.

By the Upper House of Assembly

Octob^r the 16th 1724

Gentlemen.

Upon Consideracon of Your Message of October the 10th by Col^o Mackall and five others we arc of Opinion that what ever defects may have hapned in the forms of the Oaths to be administred to the Judges of the Provincially and County Courts by the frequent and Careless Transcribing of the Clerks they Ought to be Corrected, And whenever laid before our House we shall readily Concurr therein.

Sign'd p Ord^r Sam^l Skippon Cl Up Ho.
