The following Address being read is approved of and ordered to be engrossed and presented to his Excellency in the Council Chamber by John Hall Esq<sup>r</sup> & the rest of the members of this House

To his Excellency Sam Ogle Esq<sup>r</sup> Governour and Commander in chief in and over the Province of Maryland

The humble Address of the Upper House of Assembly
May it please your Excellency

We return our hearty and sincere Thanks to your Excellency for your kind Speech at the opening this Session of Assembly and gratefully accept your Congratulation on the Marriage of the Princess Royal to his Serene highness the Prince of Orange, and we take Leave to assure your Excellency that this happy occasion has not only made lasting Impressions of Joy and Satisfaction upon our minds, but also obliges us with the Greatest Sense of Gratitude to imitate the rest of his Majesty's faithful Subjects, in acknowledging his Paternal Care and Goodness so evident in that Particular p. 315

The many Blessings we Enjoy under his most Sacred Majestie's wise and just Government together with that inestimable Privilege of making Laws Suitable to our Constitution, and convenient for promoting the Welfare & Prosperity of the good People of this Province (If not inconsistent with the Trade and Interest of great Brittain) will oblige us to Endeavour so to use these benefits as to answer the End and Design of them, for as you are pleased justly to observe the Advantages we shall reap from the Liberty of making Laws will always be in proportion to the wisdom and Prudence that
