

Address of both Houses, Occasioned, as we Suppose, by the Contrary Winds, which have Hindred the arrival of the Expected Ships, Yet we hope Soon to receive a favourable Answer thereto. L. H. J. Lib. No. 45

We Gratefully Acknowledge the Assurance you are pleased to give us, of Readily and Heartily Assisting us all that is in your power, in any thing that may be of Service to the Country; which as it is an Encouragement to us to consider, in the best Manner we are able, what may be Advantagius; so it gives us hopes that something may be Done, for the Advantage of the People we Represent wherein the Experience we have had of your Excellencys Sincere Regard for the Welfare and Prosperity of this Province leaves us no Room to Doubt Your Concurrence and Assistance.

It Cannot be Denied but that it is a very Great Ease to the Poore that the Publick Levy, should be as low as possible; and as it is our Duty, so it shall be our Endeavour to use all the Dispatch we Can in whatever Business may Come before us, a thing as Your Excellency Justly Observes, Very Desireable on many accounts.
