P. C. R. Cap^t Thomas Cornewalleys sworne in open Court Sayth, th^t when M^r Chandler deliuered this Dep^t a Mare, he shewed him a Browne Mare, w^{ch} he s^d was his, W^{ch} Barnaby Jackson ueiwing sayd to this Depon^t That Mare would cleare her selfe, & if th^t M^r Chandler wanted a Mare, hee must looke her of Cap^t Stone, Will^m Boreman & Thomas Courtney, being allso examined & nothing appearing positiuely by their Oathes, th^t the Mare in dispute is the p^{ts} Mare. But rather suppose the contrary th^t it is the dēfts Mare.

And the p^{tf} not being able to proue the same, The dēft desyreth nonsuite, W^{ch} was Granted.

Streeter v.
Brooks Vppon the demand of Richard Collett the p^{ts} Attorney, agst ffrancis Brooks dēft for 1400^l Tob by Bill, The dēft denyeth the s^d Bill & the signing thereof by him.

Cap^t Thomas Cornewalleys sworne in open Court sayth th^t Co^h Thomas Burbadge desyred this Depon^t to demand of the dēft this Bill: w^{ch} hee did & the dēft neuer denyed it to him.

M^{rs} Jane ffenwick sworne (concerning this Bill in question) sayth, That shee hath heard M^r ffenwick her husband say That ffrancis Brooks thought to haue cheated other folks, & cheated himselfe, affirming th^t Co^h Burbadge did say, That hee thought th^t M^r Olditch had noe right in th^t Bill, But as for himselfe he gaue, or could giue his right therein, But hee could not giue away what doth belong to the children, Cap^t Nicholas Gwyther deposeth idem.

John Metcalfe sworne Sayth That he heard M^r ffenwick say, That hee thought in his conscience th^t that Bill was uery uniust.

Whereuppon the Court considered th^t the Bill by the p^{tf} produced, if euer signed by the dēft (w^{ch} as yett doth not appeare by any Wittnes) was fraudulently obteyned, & therefore Judge that the s^d Bill doe lye in Court till the 25th of March next, By w^{ch} time if prooffe bee not made uppon what consideraōn the s^d Bill was gyuen, the s^d Bill shall be deliuered up to bee cancelled.

Baysey v.
Clarke

To the hon^{bte} the Gou^r & Councill

The humble Petⁿ of Michael Baysey.

Sheweth That whereas yo^e Pet^r hath complayned seuerall times agst M^r Robert Clarke, in not laying out the Lines of the Land, belonging to the children of Anthony Rawlins deceased & one Order of Court or more hath bene had in the premises agst him, Yett notwithstanding he hath not remedied it, to the great preiudice of the s^d Childrens Land, some enchroaching uppon the back-Lines as yo^e Pet^e doth conceaue.

The humble Request of yo^r Pet^e is That the Children may bee speedily remedied therein, & yo^r Pet^r shall euer pray &c: It is Ordered according to the Petⁿ, th^t M^r Clarke make a perfect Suruey out of hand
