

Cap^t Thomas Cornewalleys sayth, That the horse now in dispute was allwayes reputed M^r Starkeys horse, & th^t hee this Depon^t tooke up that horse in Company wth M^r Mathews horses. Liber
P. C. R.

The Dēft produceth the following testimonies.

Will^m Mill aged 30 yeares or thereabouts sworne & examined this 31 January Sayth That M^r ffenwick had a fleabitten mare th^t fold a horse Colt in June or July the summer before the hard winter, w^{ch} Colt was then of a Rone couler, & a white streake downe the face & 2 or 3 white feete a little way up his leggs, to the best of his knowledge, And att the fall of the yeare, th^t mare & foale went to S^t Maries, hearing the same from seuerall poeple that they were both there, And M^r Trueman bringing up the Mare this Depon^t asked him where the foale was, & M^r Trueman answered hee did not see it when he brought the mare away, but hee thought it was left att Cap^t Stones. About 2 yeares agoe this Depon^t being att S^t Maries in Cap^t Stones Cow pen he there tooke up the fores^d Mare: & there was another Mare w^{ch} had two Colts following her, & asking Griffin whose young horse th^t was M^r Starkeys, & the Mare & the other Colt allso, & the biggest of the Colts had a white face from one eye to the other, & 3 or 4 white leggs a good way up, & further sayth not.

Sworne before me Tho: Sprigge

Will: Mill

John Bigger aged 24 yeares or thereabouts sworne 14^o January 1658 Sayth that formerly he used to trade much in horses, in buying & selling them for many yeares together, & being desyred by M^{rs} ffenwick to looke in her Roand' horses mouth doth declare th^t the s^d Roand horse is fiue yeares old, next foaling time, according to this Depon^{ts} best skill in the age of horses, & further sayth not.

Sworne before me Hugh Stanley

John † Bigger

George Reade aged 27 yeares or thereabouts sworne this 29th December 1658 sayth That the Roand horse now in the possesⁿ of M^{rs} Jane ffenwick is ffiue yeares old next foaling time, according to this Depon^{ts} best skill in the age of horses.

Sworne before me Tho: Sprigge

George ∞ Reade

Will^m Kenede aged 30 yeares or thereabouts sworne 1^o January 1658 Sayth th^t M^{rs} ffenwicks Roand horse is betwixt 4 & 5 yeares old to the best of his iudgm^t & further sayth not p. 177

Sworne before me Tho: Sprigge.

Will^m M Keneda.

Henry Thickpenny aged 26 yeares or thereabouts sworne 29 Decemb^r 1658 Sayth That the horse w^{ch} should or did belong to M^r Starkey, is not yett 4 yeares old untill the next May

Sworne before me Tho: Sprigge.

Henry G Thickpenny