[Council David Poe Esqr. Dy. Q. M. G.]

Sir. We shall be obliged to you to furnish the Commissioners of Baltimore Town and Cap<sup>t</sup> Keepports with two Teams for the Transporting Flour and Cloathing to this City for the Use of the Continental Troops

[Council to Honble Board of War]

Gentlemen Several Applications have been made to us by the Soldiers belonging to this State, for Cloathing which they allege is due to them, and, to support their Claim, have produced Certificates from the Paymasters. We wish to be informed whether they are entitled to Cloathing or Money in Lieu thereof and whether, if they are entitled to Cloathing we shall be justified in issuing it to them, agreeable to the Certificates produced.
