

Liber C C [Council to Henry Dickinson Esqr. Treasurer of the Eastern Shore]

No. 22
p. 78

Sir The exhausted State of the Treasury of the Western Shore lays us under the Necessity of making Application to you to furnish us immediately with all the Money in your Treasury exceeding the Sum of £10,000 which we apprehend will be adequate to the Purpose of discharging all Demands on you. If you think it more prudent to bring the Money than to trust any Person with it, we will most willingly reimburse you all Sums of Money necessarily expended on that Account.
