Sir We have received yours of the 7th Ins<sup>t</sup> and request you would have all the Produce of the Wheat packed into Barrels excepting the Shorts and Bran

[Council to Capt. Barron]

Sir We have sent down our State Boats, with Directions to render what Service they can, in clearing the Bay of the Enemy in Conjunction with your Force. The Assistance we expected from Baltimore is prevented by some Intelligence received there from the West Indies, which delays the Departure of the Vessels who were to have Acted some Time, in the Bay with our joint Force.

[Council to James Horner Esqr. Shrff of Harford County]

Sir M<sup>r</sup> Jn<sup>o</sup> Lee Webster hath represented to us, that previous to the Sitting of Harford County November Court, the extraordinary Conduct and menacing Expressions of Thomas Hall of said County indicating an Intention to deprive him of his Life, or to commit some very outrageous Violence on his Person, induced him to apply to a Magistrate for a Warrant to apprehend the said Hall, that he might be compelled to give Security for his good Behaviour and to keep the Peace towards the said Webster; That a Warrant was obtained and executed by a Constable and Hall recognized for his Appearance at Harford County November Court last and to keep p. 174 the Peace in the Mean Time; that Hall did not appear and attend
