[Council to Horatio Gates]

Sir Yours of the 5th Ult^o we received, which was the first Intimation given us, relative to our Supplying the Army in the Southern Department and therefore had not made a Provision for the Payment of such large Sums of Money as your two Draughts to Col^o Polk and Joseph Clay Esq^r which have been presented to us for Payment, and we are really distressed that we were under the disagreeable Necessity of declining the Payment, for want of Money. We expect a considerable Sum of Money will be paid over to the Treasury, in this Month, and shall do every Thing in our Power to have so much paid over to the Continental Treasurer, as will answer these Draughts which ought to have been drawn on him. As we are at all Times anxious to be informed of the Fate of our virtuous Countrymen, we shall thank you to transmit us a Return of the Maryland Troops by the earliest Opportunity, and every other Matter relating to them
