

Conveyance of Doct^r Upton Scott with his Cloathing and Medicine, from the City of New York through the State of Jersey

Liber C C
No. 22

[Council to Capt William Middleton]

Sir You are immediately to proceed with the Dolphin & Plater State Boats under your Command, down the Bay to M^r W^m Hemsley's and deliver the Salt you have on Board to such Person, as he shall direct. You are then to take in 4 Barrels of Pork for the Use of your Vessels and proceed down the Bay to Snow Hill on Pocomoke River, and when you arrive there, you are to inform M^r William Wise of your Business. You are to take under your Convoy two Sloops laden with Pork & Corn, and all other Vessels loaded with Provision for the State and return with all Expedition to the City of Annapolis. In pursuing these Instructions, you are to act with the greatest Caution and Vigilance, keeping a good Lookout.

[Gov. Lee to the General Assembly]

p. 204

Gentⁿ The Office of Register of Wills for Ann Arundel County, became vacant in the Recess of the General Assembly, by the Death of M^r Vallette, and, according to the Form of Government, with the Advice of the Council, I appointed and commissioned M^r Thos. Gassaway to hold that Office, untill the Meeting of the General Assembly.

[Council to Charles Blake Esqr.]

Sir Yours of the 28th Ult^o we have received. As the Price of Wheat is raised, we suppose you will not be able to purchase below the Market Price, but we wish you to be cautious and not let the Purchase of a few Bushels influence your Conduct. We have transmitted to you by Maj^r Gale 250^l of the late Emission of this State, it being the only Kind of Money we can command. M^r Hemsley has sold us 21 Head of Cattle, six of which he is to have Slaughtered and barrell'd; the Residue is to be delivered to you, which we request may be forwarded to the Head of Elk with those you purchase.
