

Red Book we are at a Loss to no who to direct to & we have therefore thought
 No. 23 it most advisable to Transmitt them to your Excellency & accordingly have inclosed & directed them to you, we also wrote to you some time ago & mentioned the quantity of the Different kinds of provision we had purchased but we apprehend the letter has never Come to hand as there is nothing mentioned of it to us by the Committee.

[J. Randall, Philadelphia to His Excellency
 Thomas Sim Lee Esqr]

Sir Your letter of the 23^d of March I receiv'd a few days before the Troops left the Hutts I endeavour'd to dispose of the Mix'd Cloths & Shalloons, but could not effect it. they will be sold at Vendue on Tuesday next and will Purchase white Cloth with the Money, I fear the sale will not enable me to get the trimming^s necessary for them

I shall be detain'd four or five days, drawing the Cloathing assignd our Troops by the Clothier General for the Campaign. I am happy to inform your Excellency I shall get every thing Return'd for, except fifteen hundred shirts and five hundred Blankets, those we hope to get from the State. The Returns made Include Cloathing for five hundred and fifty Recruits expected to join the Division in Maryland
