From a very severe parixism of the Gout I am incapable of attending the Council on Wednesday and cannot determine when I shall be able to attend. Cap<sup>t</sup> Walley makes a request of a supply of three hundred yards of Canvas of two feet width and if of greater or less width more or less Canvas proportionably, fifteen pound of twine, four quire Cartridge paper, and two dozen Sail needles. The Barge Protector in Worcester is almost finished, think it necessary Commissions should be immediately applied for. Cap<sup>t</sup> Walley recommends Captain Joseph Handy the Deaer hereof as his first Lieutenant I approve of his choice and think the Gentleman adequate to that trust. The Gentlemen Superintendants of the Virginia Galleys propose selling part of the Tackle and Apparel at publick sale; would wish Capt Walley receive instructions to purchase such Articles as the Barge stands in immediate want of. Those Gentlemen seem disposed to lend some other Articles which are not for sale provided they could be assured by Council of having them replaced or paid for in case of loss. It will be necessary Cap<sup>t</sup> Walley be instructed relative the mode of inrolling the Men, what encouragement will be given and the number of men to be enlisted. He thinks eighty men will do, though she could carry a hundred.
