[W Paca, Annapolis to Honble Daniel Carroll Esq<sup>r</sup>]

The General Assembly broke up on Wednesday, and I enclose you one of their Resolutions. Yesterday we received a Letter from General Greene informing us of the Evacuation of Charles Town, which Took Place on the 14th December. Be pleased to remind the Secretary at War of our Letter, recommending Maj<sup>r</sup> Davidson to the Post of Commissary at Baltimore; we recommended him in Consequence of the Secretary's Request, to name some retiring Officer to the Post. The Council are not with me, so that I write this without their Sanction
