

with many other necessarys appertayning to a plantation which letter was sent and Conuayed by one baker a sloopman and according to my order doe expect her in portobacko according to Contence which will bee to the great dammage of your Petitioner not only hear but also at my plantation in verginia which is not unknowne unto the testators Liber B

The premisses hearof your Petitioner leaueth to your worships Consideration and you will engage your petitioner to baer his testi-moni of the golden Character of your trew Integritie in your seuerall places of manifesting your selues to be iustices indeed and in truth and further your petitioner giues your worships light in the buisnes your petitioner hearing that Edmond was resolved to marry your petitioner was trobled at the buisnes and did aduice his saruants to cum ouer unto mee and bring thear things belonging unto them and put it into the sloop whearupon the sayd Edmond Come ouer with the sayd saruants and demanded the reason which was answered by mee as the testants Can declare and in Conclusion your petitioner was caused to draw a bond on boath sides by edmond lendsey and hee would goe downe along with mee to S^t Maries and giue mee a good sufficient assurance for what hee had promissed in owr articles of Copartnership and the Condition of his bond and further your petitioner desirs that the sayd Edmond may pay his accoumpt dew to your petition^r which is iustly dew or show reason to the Contrarie and your petitioner shall pray [p. 68]

And for the Confirmation of the sayd Petition the Plantiue produced this ensuing obligation (Viz)

A Generall list of the Copartnership between Edmond Lendsey and Richard Pinner December the 24th 1662 one thowsand Acres of land liing upon portobacco Creeke in the Prouince of Mariland at.....	lb 9000 fiueteene Cows in Calph at.....	lb 6000 fiueteene stears at.....	lb 6000 eigh barrows & six sows at.....	lb 1400 the totall sume is..... lb 22400

Thees particulars and the land I doe by the Presants auouch the sayl firmly by thees presants and to deliuer the premisses to him or his order with the increase and profits according to Agreement in owr Copartnership which is to say the one moyety or half upon the accoumpt of Richard Pinner and the other half for the accoumpt and proper use of Edmond lendsey and the sayd stoke and land to bee betweene the aboue sayd Pinner and Edmond Lendsey to them and thear heirs &^c for euer &^c upon the Consideration of too thowsand pounds of tob: and Caske in hand payd to the sayd Edmond lend-sey the aboue sayd words for euer Concerning the land was Mistaken [p. 69]