

U. H. J. before a single Justice of the Peace, and will not pass, & Sent by Liber No. 35 Richard Lee Esq<sup>r</sup>
Oct. 14

[Editor's Note: The journal for this session of the Upper House as recorded in the original official manuscript liber ends abruptly at this point in the midst of the proceedings for October 14th, the day preceding the last day of the session. As indicated by the continuous pagination of the official liber and by the fact that the last entry ends abruptly on the third line of page 457, with the remainder of this page blank, the omission is unquestionably contemporary and not due to a later mutilation of the liber. It seems probable that the Clerk of the Upper House lost his rough notes of the proceedings and did not dare enter them from memory when, at a later date, he made the official copy from his rough notes. Fortunately, the hiatus covering the last day and a half of the session is in large part supplied by the journal of the Lower House.]
