M.^r Loyd brings in and delivers to M.^r Speaker the following In-grossed Address (Viz^t)

To his Excellency Horatio Sharpe Esq.^r Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland.

The Humble Address of the House of Delegates.

May it please your Excellency

We his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Delegates of the Freemen of the Province of Maryland, in Assembly convened, return your Excellency our unfeigned thanks for your Speech at the Opening of this Session. We most heartily and Sincerely Rejoice with your Excellency, on the late glorious Peace, which the Wisdom of his Majesty's Councils, Seconded by the Vigorous Efforts of his Arms, has restored to his Subjects, on terms so highly beneficial to his Dominions in General, and so particularly calculated to advance the Security and prosperity of the British Colonies in North America: and we beg leave to return your Excellency our most cordial Congratulations on the Auspicious Birth of a Prince of Wales, from which happy Event we from the pleasing Expectations, that our Posterity will enjoy the innumerable Blessings, which we, & all our fellow Subjects, at present derive from the propitious Reign of the best of Sovereigns

The Several matters which your Excellency has thought fit to recommend to our Attention, we shall take into our most Serious Consideration and enter into such Resolutions thereon as may be agreeable to Justice, and Conducive to the Interest of our Constituents

We are firmly persuaded, that Union and Harmony are Essentially necessary to effectuate the good purposes of all Public Consultations, & your Excellency may be assured we met at this time, as we ever have done, with a determined Resolution to avoid every measure that may tend to interrupt the good understanding, and mutual Confidence which alone can render our meetings of real Benefit and Utility to our Country
