The humble peti<sup>con</sup> of Elizabeth Tennison Widdow
 Most Humbly Sheweth

That your Peti<sup>coner</sup> was the wife of John Tennison Sen<sup>r</sup> Who in his life time was to allow yo<sup>r</sup> Peti<sup>coner</sup> an yearly pen<sup>con</sup> for her Mainteinance by your Lopps order, W<sup>ch</sup> was One thousand pounds of Tobacco Three barrells of Indian Corne and Three hundred pounds of Meat p Annum Whereof your Peti<sup>coner</sup> never had but ffive hundred pounds of Tobacco Three barrells of Corne and the whole quantity of Meat being three yeares bannished from her said husband, Soe that there remains Two thousand five hundred pounds of tobacco and six barrells of Corne, Your peti<sup>coner</sup> presumeth that her husbands Executo<sup>rs</sup> stand now indebted unto her for the Two thousand five hundred pounds of tobacco and the six barrells of Corne wch has been often demanded by yo<sup>r</sup> Peti<sup>coner</sup> from them but they refuse to pay the same unless your Peti<sup>coner</sup> will accept of the same yearly allowance as she had formerly and leave her thirds

Now Soe it is may it please your Lopp That your Peticoners husband dyed in January last and by his last will made his two sonns Justinian and Absolon Tennison Joynt Ex<sup>rs</sup> And gave what Estate he had unto them but nothing unto yo<sup>r</sup> Peti<sup>coner</sup> but what she Could Recover by Lawe, soe they have gott the whole Estate into their hands, & forgetting their duty threaten to Keepe your Peti<sup>coner</sup> from her owne by Law, Who being poore and not of Ability to wage Law with them, And moreover they debarr yo<sup>r</sup> peti<sup>coner</sup> from all priviledge whatsoever, And have since the death of yo<sup>r</sup> pet<sup>rs</sup> husband Confiscated great part of the Estate and refuse to give yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> any account thereof, and doe still Contrive all the wayes imaginable to defraud yo<sup>r</sup> pet<sup>r</sup> of what is her Just due, And they also say that they will hinder your Peticoner from haveing any thing this yeare in the spite of ffate soe that your Peticoner is likely to be brought to misery & poverty in this her old age if not releived by your Lopps tender pitty and Compassion

Your Peticoner humbly prayes your Lopps order that she may
