Extract of a Proclamation, dated April 2, 1643.

“ BY THE LIEUTENANT-GENERAL,

“ Whereas the Lord Proprietary is given to understand
 “ that divers adventurers into this Province have a long
 “ time forborne to take Grants from his Lordship of Lands
 “ due to them by Conditions of Plantation or special Warrant
 “ contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said Condi“ tions and Warrants which course must needs in process
 “ of time make such adventurers' rights and pretences to “ land very doubtful and his Lordship thereby also receives “ great prejudice in his rents it is his Lordship's pleasure “ that all persons pretending any right unto any lands with-
 “ in this Province by virtue of any former Conditions of “ Plantation or special Warrant, shall within twelve months
 “ from and after the date hereof come and make appear unto “ me their right so pretended, and take out Grants of the “ same, upon pain of being refused Grants after the said
 “ time, and hereof I require all persons whom it shall con“ cern to take notice of it at their peril.”

Council Proceedings—1st Book, folio 98.

Extract of Instructions from the Proprietary, to Giles Brent Esq. Lieutenant General (deputed by Leonard Calvert Esq. who had gone to England) and to the Secretary and Council—dated the 14th July, 1643.

“ And because I intend by the Grace of God to come in “ person myself into the said Province at or before January
 “ next after the date hereof I thought fit also for divers rea“ sons to suspend the granting of any more lands within that “ Province till my arrival there when I shall take order to “ grant to every one their due who have any just right or “ claim from me of any lands within that Province and “ therefore I do hereby also restrain and revoke that power
 “ of granting of any lands in my name by him the said Giles
 “ Brent under my great Seal for the said Province and do
