

displace, nor could properly have any influence towards displacing any individual of either of those bodies, however unequal he might be to his public station. But that such representations being indeed false, the calumny might have proved highly prejudicial to the cause of America in general and to this province in particular.

That this convention are therefore of opinion, that justice would well warrant a more exemplary punishment to be inflicted on the said Samuel Purviance for his said misdoings; but that in consideration of his active zeal in the common cause, and in expectation that he will hereafter conduct himself with more respect to the public bodies necessarily entrusted with power mediately or immediately by the people of this province, and will be more attentive to propriety, this convention hath resolved, that the said Samuel Purviance for his said conduct be censured and reprimanded, and that Mr. President do from the chair censure and reprimand him accordingly, and that he be thereupon discharged.

And thereupon, the said Samuel Purviance, junior, being called in, and being at the bar of this house, Mr. President communicated to him the resolve of convention, and did censure and reprimand him accordingly.

On motion, Resolved, That a committee be appointed to view and value the linen manufactured and transmitted to the council of safety by Edward Parker, of Cecil county, in pursuance of his engagement with the convention at their session in December last; and Mr. Hooe, Mr. Gilpin, Mr. Ewing, Mr. Chamberlaine, and Mr. Cotee, were elected by ballot a committee for that purpose.
