

And whereupon the said Randall Revell by his Attorney and assigne Katherine Revell the wife of the said Randall Revell saith that the said Thomas Boole in the month of May in the ^{the} year of the Dominion of the R. R. 3rd Excilius Anno Domini one thousand six hundred seventy one did desire the said Randall Revell to send him a woman servant for present occasion whereupon the said Randall Revell did send him a woman servant but the Attorney and assigne of Randall Revell demanding the woman servant to the said Thomas Boole desired to part from her and full day and by violence forced the servant to stay in his house the plaintiff being much damaged hereby and hath damaged to the value of five thousand pounds of tobacco and thereupon being his full

~~The~~ ^{the} plaintiff pleades and saith that the servant was due to him from Mr. Revell and hath paid for the said servant yet if he will not him raise another servant in the course of her he may raise her but while here he will keep the said desired that Mr. Revell may provide that he servant was sent: and produce this deposition forth with Given by 10th 672

 Mary Perymour about eightene or nineteene years of age saith that when Mr. Boole sent her from Mr.
 Revell that she being much troubled had much to do Mr. Revell engaged Mr. Revell said with her gone for Dublin and will raise her againe and find another in his room and further saith that sworn before me John Hindon