

part for running away formerly from m^r Smith being in the said Smiths Custody; being sorry for it; and acknowledging himselfe to be the servant of the said Bridger; and desired to stay with the Sheriffe until the King made his peace with his Master; Thereupon the Co^{rt} ordered the said William to remaine with the Sheriffe until his Master should give or further order; And further ordered that the Sheriffe should send two hundred pounds of tobacco for the use of the King who formerly took him up before he is delivered to his Master; / /
