that were with him that Richard B. H. was a very house man and had good entertainment for strangers - binding me and Vincent Shuckelworth over on the Saturday from M<sup>r</sup> Rowell with Landon and the house man in the boat belonging unto the sloop Richard B. H.

not being at home at present that day came home again him whether we might have entertainment and he told me when he came back again he would tell me for he was going over to speak with Capt<sup>e</sup> Jones to M<sup>r</sup> Rowell but he and I had no discourse until Monday morning and then he and I did agree for a month's diet for Vincent Shuckelworth and myself our agreement was as follows (viz) that I should take down the roof
